Career Services Network Co-op Positions

Date Posted: April 30, 2010

Name of Position: Media writers, photographers

Description:

The alternative music website <http://livethescene.com> and we are currently searching for gig photographers, video interviewers and review writers to join our team.

Our music website covers the following genres - Pop-punk, emo, punk-rock, hardcore, metal & screamo so it would be highly advantageous if you had a strong interest in these genres.

Roles Available:

Photographers -

We are looking for the best photographers to shoot many live gigs and it would be a great advantage if they could also manage to write a 300 - 400 word gig review.

We sort out the photo passes to the gigs and so all photographers would gain free entry to gigs & even festivals.

If you are interested in this role please email me at editor@livethescene.com with the following info

- Name
- Role applying for
- Location & cities you'd be able to cover
- Link to your flickr account or similar portfolio websites

This role is unpaid but you do get free entry to gigs and is great for any CV

Video Interviewers -

We conduct many band interviews and prefer to record them on a video camera. We are looking to add a few more video interviewers. You will need easy access to a video camera and preferably a microphone as many interviews take place at noisy venues during other band's sound checks.

If you feel you have a great interviewing technique and would be interested in interviewing lots of bands please email me at editor@livethescene.com with the following info

- Name
- Role applying for
- Location & cities you'd be able to cover
- Link to any previous video interviews you've conducted

This role is unpaid but you do get free entry to gigs and meet a lot of bands.

Reviewers -

We are also looking for review writers for both gigs and album reviews. If you have a strong interest and knowledge of the genres we cover and wish to apply to be a reviewer please email me at editor@livethescene.com with the following info

- Name
- Location & cities you'd be able to cover
- 300-400 word album or live review

This role is unpaid but you do get free music and free entry to any gigs you review.

Thanks and good luck!
