Olivet College to host traveling art exhibition

OLIVET, Mich. – In recognition of Black History Month, the Olivet College visual arts program will host an art exhibit titled “Work from the Jim Crow Museum of Ferris State University,” which includes objects and images from the Jim Crow era (circa 1877 to the mid-1960s). The exhibit will be held Thursday, Feb. 15 through Tuesday, Feb. 27 from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday through Friday, in the Olivet College Art Gallery, located in the Mott Academic Center. The exhibit is free and open to the public.

For more information or to schedule other viewing times, call (269) 749-7627.

###

Established in 1844, Olivet College is a private, liberal arts institution located in south central Michigan. The college remains dedicated to its vision of Education for Individual and Social Responsibility by providing a quality higher education to all, regardless of gender, race or financial means. The college is home to more than 1,000 students, who study under The Olivet Plan. In this unique educational experience, students engage in both curricular and co-curricular programs that combine real world experiences with lectures and service learning.
