

Olivet College

Parent Advisory Council

Monday, Sept. 28, 2009

Phone Conference 7 p.m.

Therese Scarpace and Deb Marquette, co-chairs of the Parent Advisory Council (PAC) welcomed Olivet parents along with Linda Logan, Ph.D., Vice President and Dean for Student Life.

Homecoming Plans for Parent Advisory Council

- Tent with two tables with tablecloths and chairs will be in place for Oct. 10. PAC parents will work the tent from 12:30 p.m. to roughly 3 p.m. or just after half time. We have some volunteers but will put out request for other volunteers.
- Larry Colvin will provide sketch of pavilion with sign. Each pavilion will cost roughly $3,500.
- Red licorice sticks will be given in return for donations
- Donation jars will be on table
- Sample of a Care Package will be on display for visual affect along with care package order forms

Challenge

Plans for a challenge to students and parents in the next newsletter for donations to see which hall gets the first pavilion. Therese and Deb will speak with Jake about this challenge.
