11:00 a.m. – 11:45p.m. Free time or sign up for a meeting with a financial aid advisor (see the desk at the check-in area).

- Visit the Olivet College Bookstore located in the lower level of the Kirk Center
- Stop in the Office of Admissions in Dole Hall for refreshments
- Visit the Burrage Library and check out the collection – use one of the computers

11:45 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. Lunch with the Vice President for Student Life (Kirk Center, Oak View Room)

Lunch is complementary for parents and guardians who join in this informative session with Dr. Linda Logan, vice president and dean for student life, and her staff. Come learn more about the Olivet College experience for students and for parents/guardians.

In the interest of continuing to build strong student-to-student connections that are part of an important support system during the academic year, we ask that you encourage your son or daughter to join other new students for lunch.

1:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. Options for Parents, Guardians and Other Guests

- Financial Aid Advising (Mott Academic Lobby – Student Services Office)
- Visit with your Coach (Cutler Athletic Facility or in Barker Cawood Lounge)

2:00 – 3:30 p.m. Ice Cream Social (Mott Academic Lobby)

Join back up with your loved one to celebrate the day's activities and share a sweet treat together before heading home.

Other Options in Olivet

- Check out the Oak Chest, a used clothing and home-goods store run by the Olivet College Women's Board to raise funds for scholarships for Olivet College students. Located in downtown Olivet.
- Find a comfortable chair nearly anywhere on campus and tap into the campus-wide wireless network using your own device (log-in info is at the top of this document).
- Visit Whitetail Farm Market on Butterfield Highway, just across from the Cutler Event Center, for fresh traditional and specialty meats and the best fresh brats in the area.

Be sure to mark your calendar for Move-In Day, Friday August 26!
*(Some fall sport athletes move into the residence hall prior to this date;
you will receive additional information from your coach.)*
